Half-glass each of the Malvasia,
Bonarda Frizzante and Bonarda Oltrepo Pavese

Malvasia "Tasto di Seta," Castello di Luzzano, 2013

Castello di Luzzano has been owned by the Giulia and Fugazza families for nearly a century. Produced from 100% Malvasia di Candia grapes, this aromatic dry white wine is minerally and steely with lovely bright citrus aromas and lush flavors of ripe tropical fruit.

Bonarda Frizzante "Sommosa," Carlino,
Castello di Luzzano, 2013

This wine is quite unique as it is dry, red and sparkling – think Refosco or sparkling Shiraz - it is produced from 100% Bonarda grapes and has intense ripe berry aromas and flavors.

On the palate it is dry, tangy and refreshing.

Bonarda Oltrepo Pavese, Carlino,
Castello di Luzzano, 2013

This dry, full-bodied red wine is produced from 100% Bonarda grapes and has intense violet aromas and ripe berry flavors. Its excellent balance, depth of flavors and velvety texture.
